

ROYAL BLUE POLLINATOR

I Am Learning to Grow.

Introduce children to God, responsibility, reading, friendship, kindness, cleanliness, discipline, and the importance of learning.

Students learn:

- ✓ Put God first
- ✓ Say thank you
- ✓ Tell the truth
- ✓ Listen to parents, teachers, trusted adults
- ✓ Take care of books
- ✓ Read every day
- ✓ Keep themselves and environment clean
- ✓ Be patient
- ✓ Be kind to other children
- ✓ Share
- ✓ Help someone who needs help
- ✓ Finish assignments
- ✓ Understand mistakes can become lessons

Answer After Read

- Who is Amya?
- What did Amya learn?
- Why are bees important?
- What does being a good friend mean?
- What lesson can you use in your own life?

Writing Assignment

I can be a good friend by _____.

One thing I learned from Bee My Friend is _____.

Paragraph Writing

Write a short Paragraph 100 - 150 words

7-Day Discipline Challenge

- ☐ Making bed
- ☐ Cleaning learning area
- ☐ Reading 10-15 min
- ☐ Saying please & thank you
- ☐ One responsibility without reminder

Video Challenge 30-60 sec

My name is _____. I am a Royal Blue Pollinator. One thing I learned from Bee My Friend is _____.

→ Share one lesson with family.

Pay-It-Forward — 1 act

Help a classmate, share a book, clean without being asked, encourage someone, help elder family.

Advancement Requirement → Golden Pollinator

✓ Complete writing assignment

✓ Complete reading assignment

✓ Perform one act of kindness

✓ Record 30-60 sec video

✓ Complete 7-day discipline challenge

✓ Explain one lesson learned

GOLDEN POLLINATOR

My Choices Build My Future.

Teach children that daily decisions create habits and habits influence their future.

Students learn:

- ✓ God and purpose.
- ✓ Self-control.
- ✓ Respect.
- ✓ Time management.
- ✓ Reading habits.
- ✓ Following directions.
- ✓ Patience.
- ✓ Goal setting.
- ✓ Friendship.
- ✓ Responsibility.
- ✓ Positive communication.

Reading Challenge

Read Bee My Friend again and identify five important lessons from the story.

Essay Assignment

Write a Essay 200 - 500 words

What Bee My Friend Taught Me About Being a Better Person

Introduction

Three lessons from the story.

How the student can use those lessons.

Conclusion.

The student should discuss:

The story.

The characters.

Why bees matter.

Friendship.

One important life lesson.

Answer After Read

- What do I want to become?
- They choose three possible careers and research what each career requires.

Pay-It-Forward — 1 act

Teach a younger child one lesson learned from Bee My Friend.

Video Challenge 30-60 sec

Create a 1-2 minute video explaining the book to someone who has never read it.

Date	Book	Pages read	New word learned	One thing learned

Advancement Requirement

The student must demonstrate improved responsibility, complete the essay and video, maintain the reading log, explore three careers, and complete a service activity.

PINK POLLINATOR

Knowledge Grows When I Share It.

Move students from simply learning information to communicating, teaching, and sharing knowledge.

Key Lessons

- ✓ Leadership.
- ✓ Empathy.
- ✓ Being a great friend.
- ✓ Conflict resolution.
- ✓ Strong communication.
- ✓ Reading comprehension.
- ✓ Writing.
- ✓ Public speaking.
- ✓ Patience under pressure.
- ✓ Helping others.

Essay Assignment

Write a Essay 400 - 500 words

How Can I Become a Pollinator in My Community?

Knowledge.

Kindness

Faith.

Positivity.

Friendship.

Education.

Students learn:

Pollination.

Bee colonies

Worker bees.

Honey production.

Why bees matter to food production.

Ways humans can protect pollinators.

Video Presentation 2-3 minute

What Bee My Friend Taught Me — Students should speak clearly without simply reading their essay.

Friendship Challenge

Include at least ten qualities of a strong friend, such as honesty, loyalty, kindness, respect, patience, encouragement, trust, forgiveness, listening, and accountability.

Pay-It-Forward Project

Complete three acts of service and write a reflection about how each act affected another person.

Advancement Requirement → Golden Pollinator

Required education.

Expected responsibilities.

Why the career interests the student.

Required skills.

Possible salary range.

How school today prepares them for it.

Advancement Requirement

Students must complete the essay, research project, video presentation, friendship code, three service activities, and career report.

PURPLE POLLINATOR

I Have a Plan.

Turn dreams into structured goals.

Students begin learning how successful people use planning, education, discipline, patience, faith, and perseverance.

Who Do I Want to Become?

- ✓ Their character.
- ✓ Their faith.
- ✓ Their educational goals.
- ✓ Their career goals
- ✓ How they want to treat people.
- ✓ How they want to help their community.

Essay Assignment

Education is the Key to My Future

Why education matters.

Why reading matters.

How discipline affects success.

Why patience is necessary.

Their desired career.

Obstacles they may face.

How they plan to overcome those obstacles.

Students organize a small project such as:

- Book donation.
- Neighborhood cleanup.
- Pollinator garden.
- Reading to younger children.
- Kindness campaign.
- School supply drive.
- Helping a senior citizen.
- Bee awareness project.

Video Presentation 5-7 minute

• God first.

• Friendship.

• Education.

• Discipline.

• Caring for nature.

• Paying it forward.

Five-Year Future Plan

Year 1 — What will I improve?

Year 2 — What skills will I develop?

Year 3 — What educational goal will I reach?

Year 4 — What career knowledge will I gain?

Year 5 — What kind of young person do I want to be?

Advancement Requirement

Students must complete all major academic assignments and demonstrate leadership through a service project.

PLATINUM POLLINATOR

THE GRAND TIER

Platinum Pollinator is not simply an award.

It represents character, knowledge, leadership, faith, preparation, and service.

Platinum Standards

A Platinum Pollinator should demonstrate:

Faith without disrespecting others.

Discipline without needing constant supervision.

Confidence without arrogance.

Leadership without bullying.

Patience without quitting.

Education with purpose.

Friendship with loyalty and respect.

Success while helping someone else succeed.

THE PLATINUM CAPSTONE PROJECT

Every Platinum candidate completes a final project titled:

My Future. My Purpose. My Plan.

Personal Essay

Write a Essay 1,000 - 1,500 words

Who I am.

What I believe.

My goals.

What I have learned.

How education will affect my future.

How I will help others.

My responsibilities.

My career interests.

The person I want to become.

From Bee My Friend to Platinum Pollinator

Explain how the lessons from the book connect to life, education, friendship, responsibility, faith, community, and the student's future.

Video Presentation 5-7 minute

Students introduce themselves as a Platinum Pollinator candidate and discuss:

- What they learned during all five tiers.
- Their favorite lesson from Bee My Friend.
- Their career goal.
- Their educational plan.
- Their definition of discipline.
- Why patience matters.
- How they will pay their knowledge forward.

Career Blueprint

Career goal

Education required

Skills required

Estimated costs

Possible scholarships

Potential income

Five steps they can begin taking now

College, university, certification, trade school, military, entrepreneurship, or other pathway

Part Five — Pay-It-Forward Project

Tutor them

Read with them

Teach Bee lessons

Encourage academically

Help set goals

Help complete project

Community service together

Then write: "What I Gave Back." — reflection on impact.

PLATINUM PRESENTATION DAY

Students present their final projects before parents, teachers, mentors, community members, or program leaders.

Platinum Pollinator Certificate

Leadership Certificate

Platinum Pollinator Medal or Pin

Bee My Friend Pollinator Portfolio

Completion Certificate